

Attachment 5: City of Port Phillip Heritage Policy Definitions – Proposed new definitions

Current definition	Places included	Proposed new definition	Places included
Significant heritage places include buildings and surrounds that are individually important places of either State, regional or local heritage significance and are places that together within an identified area, are part of the significance of a Heritage Overlay. These places are included in a Heritage Overlay either as an area or as an individually listed heritage place and are coloured “red” on the City of Port Phillip Heritage Policy Map in the Port Phillip Heritage Review, Volume 1-6.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Places included on the Victorian Heritage Register</li> <li>• Places of local significance (usually, with an individual PPHR citation).</li> <li>• Places that contribute to the significance of a heritage precinct but are not of individual local significance.</li> </ul>	Significant heritage places are of individual significance at the local or State level and may also contribute to the significance of a heritage precinct.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Places included on the Victorian Heritage Register.</li> <li>• Places of local significance with an individual citation or specifically identified within a precinct citation in the Port Phillip Heritage Review.</li> </ul>
Contributory heritage places include buildings and surrounds that are representative heritage places of local significance which contribute to the significance of the Heritage Overlay area. They may have been considerably altered but have the potential to be conserved. They are included in a Heritage Overlay and are coloured “green” on the City of Port Phillip Heritage Policy Map, in the Port Phillip Heritage Review, Volume 1-6.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Places that contribute to the significance of a heritage precinct, but are not of individual local significance</li> </ul>	Contributory heritage places contribute to the significance of a heritage precinct but are not of individual significance.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• All places that contribute to the significance of a heritage precinct but are not of local or State significance.</li> </ul>
Non-contributory properties are buildings that are neither significant nor contributory. They are included in a Heritage Overlay and have no colour on the City of Port Phillip Heritage Policy Map in the Port Phillip Heritage Review, Volume 1-6. However, any new development on these sites may impact on the significance of the Heritage Overlay, and should therefore consider the heritage characteristics of any adjoining heritage place and the streetscape as covered in this policy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Properties that are within a heritage precinct but do not contribute to the significance of the precinct.</li> </ul>	Non-contributory properties do not contribute to the significance of a heritage precinct.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Properties that do not contribute to the significance of a heritage precinct</li> </ul>